

Chapel 328 years old

The annual Spring sale held by the High Chapel at Ravenstonedale was well attended.

The event was opened by the Minister, the Rev. J. Desmond Owen, who thanked givers and buyers, stallholders and people for their continued support. The result was £230 for chapel funds.

The chapel celebrates its 328th anniversary on Sunday, 3rd June, with a communion service at which a new member will be enrolled.

In the afternoon there will be a "Songs of Praise" service featuring worshippers from a similar village chapel in North Wales — the home of the Rev. Desmond Owen.
